TO: JAMES HESTER (GDDV60A)
FROM: ELAINE WARNER (NSMF68B)
SUBJECT: TANKERSLEY - S.C.

Dear James, From the Tankersley Family Genealogy (which is chock full of errors, but might give you a start: "The issue of George Tankersley and Elizabeth Tarrant, all of them born in Greenville, S.C. were; Reuben, born 1790, married Alice Scott, died in MS 1844, Richard, b. Feb 22, 1792, m. Eliz. Pullen, Jan 4, 1827, d. Feb. 22, 1868; Mary, b. 1795, m. Gray Barker; George, b. Nov 26, 1798, m. Mary Paden Feb. 17, 1820, d. May 13, 1872; Elizabeth, b. 1802, m. Moses Garrison; Nehemiah, b. 1806, m. Frances Tarrant 1828, d. 1885; Judith, b. 1810, m. Mathias Garrison; Winnie, b 1820, m. William West.

George Edward Tankersley, b 1740 in Caroline Co. Va, m. Elizabeth Boldin in Bedford Co. Va, where both died. Their issue were: Richard, b 1761, m Mary Hilton, Oct 23, 1785, d. 1814; George, b 1762 m Elizabeth Tarrant 1786, d Aug 1840; John b 1764 m Susan Brooks 1788, d 1822; Joseph b 1766 m Catharine Buckner; Elizabeth b 1769 d without issue, Charles b 1772 m Ann Askins, 1795, d. Jan 22, 1845; Fountain, b 1774 Richard Tankersley and Elizabeth Fountain were born and died in Caroline Co. Va. Their issue were: Rowland, b 1737, m. Tabitha Bennett, 1758; Tichard b March 13, 1738 m. Mary Wood 1768, d 1810; George Edward, b 1740, m. Elizabeth Boldin 1762, d 1784; William b 1742, m Martha Nelson 1764.

There are some discrepancies in the following, but it's been so long since I've messed with the Tankersleys I dont remember right off hand what they are.

Richard Tankersley was born in Yorkshire, England, about 1676; m. Margaret Rowland in Caroline Co. Va 1712, and there died 1744. Their issue were Sarah Margaret b 1714; m Thomas Peatross 1735, d. 1754; Richard b 1716 m Elizabeth Fountain 1737, d. 1748.

Welcome to the family! Maybe you can help unravel the knots I've found. Love to hear from you.

Your cousin many times removed,

Elaine Warner, Edmond, OK

SUBJECT: MS..SOUTHEASTEN COS.

ok Pat, I am researching STEPHENS/STEVENS. I am following a Moore, Lukis, and William O. Stephens. They were in AL, Green and Sumter Cos. then moved to MS, Newton Co. My last census is 1860. Can you help me? If not specifically, could you make a suggestion on where they might have gone after the Civil War. These families were heavily male. How could I check for confederate service? Thanks, Jean ok Dear Patricia, I haven't found your George Tankersley yet. I'm sure you noticed in my previous note, doubts about the accuracy of the family history. George is a prominent name in the history - the two immigrants were Richard and George. I am in the process of indexing the names, but so far the only one I have found that is even close to the George G. you asked about is: George, son of Rowland Tankersley and and Clarissa Wade. Rowland, born in Va. moved to S.C. then Ga. in 1810. Son George b. 1788 m Elizabeth Williams. The only fact that matches is his name! so probably the wrong one! I'm keeping a copy of your note and will keep looking. If I run across your George, I'll let you know.

Dear Pat, It's amazing what you find when you're trying to avoid cleaning house! Try this on for size - I guarantee nothing. John Tankersley (1764-1822) married Susan Brooks in 1788. Their children were (no dates given) Susan, William Brooks, Robert, Joseph, Nellie, GEORGE G. and Elsey. GEORGE G. married Sarah Frances Healy Jones. Their children were W.J. (Aug 8, 1825) Robert (Jan. 21, 1832) Susan (Sept. 23, 1835) Caroline (May 30, 1838) James H. (March 9, 1840) Harrison (Apr. 4, 1841) Felix (Jan. 4, 1843.) This is the last generation in this line which is given in the history. Additional info at the end of the history: "George Green Tankersley served in Ga. Volunteers. Was 2nd Lieut. in Capt. Glascock's Co. Ga. Militia. Regiment commanded by Col Ignatius A. Few. Served from Sept. 25, 1814 - 1815. If this is your George and you want a copy of the history which contains more info (even some Jones stuff) I'll copy and send. $5 will cover copy, mail, I think. E.
